

MADERO WANTS TROOPS TO GO OVER AMERICA

Mexican Congress Grants His Plea to Ask Permission to Cross United States

SOLDIERS TO TAKE SOUTHERN PACIFIC

Rebels in Shooting General Vega Invoke "La Ley Fuga"—the Unwritten Law

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 27.—Mexico congress granted Madero's request again to ask the United States for permission to transport troops through American territory today.

If the permission is granted by Washington, troops of Gen. Tracy Aubert, now at Olinia will be transported, a part over the Southern Pacific, entering Mexico at Del Rio, Sonora and the remainder will be sent via Ciudad Profrío Diaz to cooperate with Gen. Blauquet in command at Salinas.

Orozco's army is now among the Haciendas near Labahia and Piedra Blanca, and in the range of hills known as Sierra Burro which offer excellent opportunities for defense. The governor wishes to send three columns against Orozco.

UNWRITTEN LAW INVOKED

DOUGLAS, Sept. 27.—"La Ley Fuga" the unwritten law declared by Mexican outlaws and revolutionists is claimed for "Gen." Alejandro Vaca when he left Cananea overland last Saturday under a guard of six soldiers for Hermosilla.

According to word reaching here today, "He was shot while trying to escape was the official report."

Vega was arrested at Naco some time ago on a charge of inciting the Yaquis to rebellion and of attempting to bribe Federal Commander Small, of Sonora town, to join the rebels.

Rebels Loot Bocachi

Four hundred rebels entered the town of Bocachi, 30 miles west of Naco yesterday and took what had been left after two previous raids. The band of 100 rebels looted Gaholanda ranch, 35 miles southwest of Douglas, stole all horses and provisions and are reported having taken with them two Mexican women employed on the ranch.

REBELS AND FEDERAL FRIENDS

JUAREZ, Sept. 27.—Three bridges were burned today on the Mexican and Northwestern railroad running southwest to Juarez. With the longest trestle on the line burned a few days ago, the destruction today shuts off this port of entry from any communication with the interior of Mexico.

According to report brought here today by Park Look, federal and rebel soldiers dance together in the same hall at Casas Grandes. There seems to be no effort on the part of the fed erals to check rebels' raids. Look said the rebels raided his ranch, and his Mexican manager was taken off and held for ransom.

BOWMAN RELEASED

SALT LAKE, Sept. 27.—Special from El Paso says that Demar Bowman who has been held by the rebels near Casas Grandes was released according to O. Lust who arrived at El Paso from the Chihuahua colonies. Mr. Lust says that thirteen boys, who went to Pacheco Garcia and the Chihuahua colonies to gather up what they could of the colonists' property are still missing and much uneasiness is felt.

RAIDED PAGE'S CAMP

TUCSON, Sept. 27.—Page, one of the owners of mining property on the Yaqui river went to the jail today to confute the statement of Gen. Emilio Campa that he never molested or attempted to kill Americans. Page charged Campa with looting and destroying his camp, Aug. 29, and threatening to kill him. Only the pleas of his wife saved him, says Page. After Campa had looted his home Mr. Page says the rebels tore his wife's silk dresses into strips and rode away with strips decorating the tails of their horses.

All employees receiving $3 a day and more will receive an increase of 25 cents. All receiving less than $3 will receive an increase of 20 cents.

This increase applies to employees of the Nevada Consolidated company as well as the smelter employees and will cause an increase in the general pay roll of more than $18,000 a month.

HABEAS CORPUS TO BE USED TO FREE CAMPA

Friends of Rebel Chieftrain Hasten to Washington to Secure His Liberty

TUCSON, Sept. 27.—A dinner to Emilio Campa, the captured rebel chief, upon his release by the United States authorities is being arranged by Dr. J. B. Ruffo and other friends. They fondly expect to have him at liberty in a few days. No further instructions regarding the prisoner have been received from Washington by United States Marshal C. A. Overlock.

Will Fight For Freedom

That the fight for Campa's liberty by means of habeas corpus proceedings will be started in a few days, unless Washington acts, became apparent Wednesday. E. V. Anaya, Mexican consul, has retained former Judge John H. Campbell, presumably upon instructions from Mexico City. The employment of counsel by Anaya simply indicates that he wants to be ready to combat an attempt by Campa's friends here for his release.

Friends are Active

Ruffo stated Wednesday that friends of the late revolutionist have hurried to Washington to work for his release. Ruffo also stated that former revolutionists from Durango, Campa's home, are coming into Tucson. He does not care to give their names. They are to be ready with funds and testimony if needed.

It is probable that Campa will go to St. Louis, if he is released. His wife and two babies have been there since the outbreak of the revolution.

REVOLUTION IN SONORA SEEMS ABOUT BROKEN

Defeat of Rebel Leaders and Capture of Campa Discourages Movement

CANANEA, Mex., Sept. 27.—Judging by the recent defeats the rebels met in Sonora, it seems as if the revolution in Sonora had about been broken. General Salazar has been defeated near Fronteras, and his men scattered to some extent. Campa and his band were scattered in the Altar district after a hard fight, and the general is now at Tucson. Facaboz's outfit has suffered defeat also in the Altar district and his men scattered, and Enciso's band was put to flight at Sotole ranch, in the neighborhood of La Cofriza.

General Rojas and his band have returned to Chihuahua, presumably to again join forces with Orozco, and all that seems to be left in Sonora at present are only small bands whose operations seem to be aimless and independent of each other.

Rebels Are Scattered

Two rebel bands were whipped by the fed erals in the Altar district on last Sunday. Miguel Enciso's command suffered a severe defeat at the Sotole ranch. When fed erals, commanded by Colonel Cambreros, attacked him and scattered his command to the four winds. The rebel loss is unknown, but a number of dead and wounded were left behind, besides all their supplies, ammunition, 21 rifles and 26 horses, saddles and pack animals. Enciso was shot in the left arm. Enciso's band was also scattered, and Colonel Oron was the aggressor. Two were killed and a number wounded, and the rebels also left behind 27 horses, 16 saddles, 13 rifles, two mules and a large quantity of ammunition and provisions. Two prisoners the rebels took at San Rafael were released by the fed erals.

At Cananea Eastern

A rebel command, supposed to be the same that burned the bridge at kilometre 22 on the Cananea-Naco road last Sunday, visited the camp of the Cananea-Eastern mine on Tuesday evening and took everything that they could carry off, including the provisions, powder, fuel and Capt. Saseachi Volante's.

A command of volunteers from Bacochi were in the city this week, and were all armed with rifles and given plenty of ammunition by the prefect. The men were all well mounted, and left for their town later.

DEBS CLAIMING MILLION VOTES IN NOVEMBER

Socialist Presidential Candidate Bases Claim on Reports from All Parts of Country

DISSATISFACTION WITH OLD PARTIES

This is Alleged Condition and Socialist Leaders Expect Large Gains in the West

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Eugene V. Debs, the socialist party candidate for president, believes he will poll at least 1,000,000 votes in the coming election. This belief is shared by his campaign managers and is based upon reports recently received from the party workers in every section of the country. The total socialist vote in the national election is 1901 was 402,265 and four years ago the vote reached 420,793. In both these elections the party had the same presidential candidate as this year. With the same standard-bearer it could scarcely be expected that the party vote would more than double, unless public sentiment has undergone a surprising change within four years.

The men who are managing the socialist campaign declare that they are in receipt of advices indicating widespread dissatisfaction with the candidates of the old parties. They believe that both Taft and Wilson will suffer greatly from defections by which Debs, even more than Roosevelt, will benefit. The aggregate of these defections, so they state, will be more than sufficient to roll up a million votes for the socialist national ticket.

Heretofore New York state has polled the largest socialist vote. Next in the order named come Illinois, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Wisconsin. In the last election in Massachusetts the socialists just succeeded in getting the three per cent that entitles them to be called a party and to have a place on the official ballot. The party managers are relying upon the recent strikes and other labor troubles in Lawrence, New Bedford and other mill towns to greatly increase the socialist vote next November.

The socialists also expect to make great gains in the far west. On the Pacific slope California gave the largest socialist vote four years ago. This year the confidence of the party workers in that section of the country is so great that predictions are even made that Nevada will elect a socialist governor.

Texas, North Carolina and several other southern states have socialist tickets in the field this fall, though the south, on the whole, is remarkable for its small socialist vote. Oklahoma, for reasons that are difficult to determine, has shown far stronger inclinations towards socialism than any of her neighbors. The total socialist vote in Oklahoma four years ago was 21,734, which is more than twice that polled in the foremost center of socialism in the United States.
